

Teachers of Science - Early Years to Year 4 & Years 5 to 12
Professional Learning in STEM education.

Reserve the dates

Remember this? Perhaps not but it marked a spot in exploration which will always be significant.

CONSTAT 2019 - celebrating the 50th Anniversary of the Moon Landing

The Moon and Beyond – More Missions – More Science – More opportunities

When: Friday 29 and Saturday 30 March 2019.

Where: Launceston, various venues – see below.

What's happening? Professional learning for all teachers of Science, with visiting experts for all years of science education, some special celebratory opportunities and an opportunity to mingle with colleagues.

Time	Venue	What's on?	For teachers of:
Fri 29 March, day	Tramsheds, Inveresk, Launceston	Full day PL program	Early years to year 4
Fri 29 March, day	Various	Science in the Field – 3 exciting opportunities	Years 5-12
Fri 29 March, 3.30pm on	Queen Victoria Museum, Invermay	A master class with Dr Brad Tucker and Planetarium visit	All (ECE to Year 12)
Fri 29 March evening	Launceston Boat House, Invermay	A fabulous dinner with guest speaker	All (ECE to Year 12)
Sat 30 March, day	Launceston Church Grammar School, Senior Campus, Mowbray	Full day PL program	Years 5-12

The Experts

Dr Angela Fitzgerald
University of Southern Queensland
Science Educator

Martin George
Queen Victoria Museum & Art
Gallery
International Award Winner

Dr Brad Tucker
Research School of Astronomy and Astrophysics, Mt. Stromlo
Observatory, ANU
Astrophysicist/Cosmologist

Matt Dodds
NSW science educator & amateur astronomer. @ScienceWithMat
Passion for Astronomy and Science
Education and connecting people with the night sky.

Watch the STAT website for updates on both the speakers and the program

<http://stat.org.au/professional-learning-2/constat-2019/>

Online registrations will open in early February – Watch the STAT website, Facebook & your email for details.

Have a question – email CONSTAT convenor Marj Colvill on marjcol@bigpond.net.au